

ASSOCIATE NETWORK SPECIALISED SERVICES

“Industry professionals with an established ethos of partnering with clients, empowering business owners, organizations and individuals through an extensive network of associate relationships to provide the best possible solutions”.

UNDERCOVER OPERATIONS:

The Undercover Agent (UA) gathers information on employees of all skill levels. This information serves as invaluable in enabling business owners and managers to eradicate management flaws, strikes and other labour issues and financial and stock losses due to criminal and syndicate activities.

INVESTIGATIONS:

CIVIL, CRIMINAL and FORENSIC INVESTIGATIONS (Turnkey Criminal, Industrial, Commercial and Domestic). Investigations done by skilled, PSIRA registered Investigators with many years of experience in their different fields who identifies and analysis all the factors of the Investigation first to determining the clients' needs.

VETTING:

A professional pro-active service is offered, including in-depth interviews, communication and written skills tests, criminal record checks and detailed background screening as part of the vetting process. Real-time verification of facts is done when needed. Incident-related and routine screening tests are also performed.

CYBER CRIME:

Sensitive information, be it personal or business, are being sold to syndicates, and companies are at huge risk of suffering damage to their long hours of earned reputation. Awareness of these threats are instilled by simulating their tactics and strategies. Comprehensive enumeration of systems are performed as prevention.

GUARDING:

The job of Asset Protection Officers (APOs) has become more sophisticated and responsible, irrespective of the type of premises guarded. APOs provided are based on client specifications. Experience, investigative techniques and diversity allow for the development of clear solutions in the present while planning for the future.

CLOSE PROTECTION:

In today's unpredictable world, executive protection provides security and peace of mind for those travelling in environments that are considered particularly unstable. With proven credentials and operational capability to provide executive protection consultants to accompany executives travelling locally, nationally, or internationally.